Erm, I think ... restaurants ... can still provide fish fin for, for customers to choose. Then, ... they have a chance to think about that and to make this decision by themselves, whether they should eat fish, shark's fin and, or change to another kind of food, ... or other cuisine. Erm, thank you for your questions question. I think, yes. Erm, there is a really ... there is a traditional Chinese concept that humans, and ... the natural nature need to be balanced and we should both respect to each other. So, I think ... killing ... animals cruelly is not a really respective respectful ... attitude, and ...

behaviors or behavior ... to the natural ... habitats. So, ... if the government bans those foods, or the food sources ... which come from cruelly treated animals, I think it will create a better world for humans and for animals. Thank you.

Yes, I think ... animal rights ... should be protected. Er, because ... now, take ... Chinese people as an example, ... when we open read the newspaper, ... recently, we can see ... Chinese ... peoples people ... ~~they kill the~~ killing dogs ... for their food. So, I think ... this is a very ... cruel ... activity ... for us. Because ... ~~dog is a~~, ... the dog is our ... our animal and our, and our friend. So, ... we couldn't ... treat them as a food because they have their minds. They have their spirits.
